

Crocodiles

Main Idea # 1: Description

Information (Important info written here in your own words)	Sources (Title, address, date accessed)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Looks 'prehistoric' like a dinosaur</li><li>- Has two teeth on the bottom that you can see when its mouth is closed</li><li>- Long snout, not short like an alligator</li><li>- Cold blooded (explain what that means)</li><li>- Some grow to be 20 feet long</li><li>- Light green in color</li><li>- Different species of crocodiles have different features</li><li>- American crocs are smaller than south American crocs</li><li>- Weigh up to 2000 lbs</li><li>- Can live to be 70 years old</li><li>- 14 different species of croc</li></ul>	American Crocodile: National Geographic http://animals.nationalgeographic.com/animals/reptiles/american-crocodile/ March 18, 2014 CROCODILIANS: Natural History &amp; Conservation http://crocodilian.com/ March 18, 2014

Main Idea # 2: Diet

Information (Important info written here in your own words)	Sources (Title, address, date accessed)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Carnivore</li><li>- American crocs eat small mammals, birds, fish, crabs, insects, snails, frogs</li><li>- Nile crocodiles have a reputation of being a 'man eater'</li><li>- can eat things found on land or in water</li></ul>	Natural History Notebooks: Crocodiles http://nature.ca/notebooks/english/croc.htm March 18, 2014

Main Idea # 3: _____

Information (Important info written here in your own words)	Sources (Title, address, date accessed)