

Memories that Inspire your Writing

Your goal: Show your readers the details of your memory moment, and use excellent word choices to explain it.

Draw a visual representation of your moment.
Your moment or event summarized in two or three sentences.		What did you see, smell, taste, hear, or touch during that moment? Use very descriptive adjectives and powerful verbs to complete the sentence starters below:
What were you doing during the moment or what was going on around you?	How did you feel during this moment or how did others around you feel?	I saw...
		I heard...
		I smelled...
		I tasted...
		I touched...
