

The World's Newest Dictator Assignment

Answer each question in complete sentences on your own paper. Please use MLA format.

1. What is the author trying to suggest with the following excerpt? "With the death of his father, 20-something Kim Jong Un is the new leader of North Korea, one of the world's most bizarre, secretive, and hostile countries." (For this question, you'll need to infer or "read between the lines.")
2. Look at the photograph at the top of page 2. Why do you think these people are bowing to the statue of Kim Il Sung? Is it out of respect, fear, or both? Explain your answer.
3. What is propaganda? How is propaganda being used as a way of controlling people in North Korea?
4. According to this article, why is the young Kim Jong Un attacking South Korea? What do you think he is trying to prove?
5. Analyze the chart on the last page of the article. Knowing what you know about North Korea, why do you think the numbers on the North Korea side of the chart are so different when compared to those of the South Korea side?
6. This article has many types of text features. Explain one thing you learned from reading the text features in this article.

The World's Newest Dictator Assignment

Answer each question in complete sentences on your own paper. Please use MLA format.

1. What is the author trying to suggest with the following excerpt? "With the death of his father, 20-something Kim Jong Un is the new leader of North Korea, one of the world's most bizarre, secretive, and hostile countries." (For this question, you'll need to infer or "read between the lines.")
2. Look at the photograph at the top of page 2. Why do you think these people are bowing to the statue of Kim Il Sung? Is it out of respect, fear, or both? Explain your answer.
3. What is propaganda? How is propaganda being used as a way of controlling people in North Korea?
4. According to this article, why is the young Kim Jong Un attacking South Korea? What do you think he is trying to prove?
5. Analyze the chart on the last page of the article. Knowing what you know about North Korea, why do you think the numbers on the North Korea side of the chart are so different when compared to those of the South Korea side?
6. This article has many types of text features. Explain one thing you learned from reading the text features in this article.