

Subordinating Conjunction Foldable

Making Complex Sentences

Subordinating Conjunctions

- join a dependent clause to an independent clause

* If an AWHBIS is the 1st word in a sentence (1) it causes a Comma.

After the party, we got a snack.

After Although
As

Before
Because

Before we go shopping, we should have lessons.

When does smile, it makes me happy.

When While

If

If my life were a circus act, I would be a clown.

Unless you study your conjunctions, you won't remember them.

Until Unless

Since
So

Since we made this folder, I created all of the conjunctions.

Subordinating Conjunctions

- join a dependent clause to an independent clause

* If an AWHBIS is the first word in a sentence (1) it causes a Comma.

A

B
B

B

W

I

U

S

Subordinating Conjunctions

- join a dependent clause (phrase) to an independent clause (simple sentence)
- * If an AWNBIS is the 1st word in a sentence, it causes a comma.

On top front flap...

A

B

On middle front flaps...

W

I

On bottom front flaps...

U

S

Open top left flap...

After the party, we got a snack.

After Although
As

Open middle left flap...

When dogs
smile, it
makes me
happy.

When While

Open bottom left flap...

Unless you
study your conjunctions,
you won't
remember them.

Until Unless

Open top right flap...

Before
Because

Before we go
snowboarding,
we should take
lessons.

Open middle right flap...

If

Before we go
snowboarding,
we should take
lessons.

Open bottom right flap...

Since

So

Since we made this foldable, I
remember all of the subordinating
conjunctions.